Coming in tomorrow's

BRANDON VALLEY Journal

The Brandon Historical Society prepares to open the Graff Cabin to the public on Oct. 3. The Journal takes a peek inside the cabin and the group's journey to the finished product.

Also, learn about a disc golf tournament that's being paired with the Graff cabin open house with the purpose of bringing some family fun to Brandon while raising a few dollars for the Historical Society.

Chase Ward shares the next chapter of Simba Educational Ministries, which has him and his family taking up residency in Kenya, Africa, for the next six months.

Lynx sports were in full action last week, and the Journal was on the sidelines for the bulk of the homecoming week events, along with photos from the high school's Friday afternoon fun at the stadium.

Plus, we'll bring you reports from both the Brandon City Council and Brandon Valley Board of Education meetings.

All this and a whole lot more can be found on the pages of this week's Brandon Valley Journal!

If you're a subscriber, thanks for reading! If you're not, what are you waiting for? To subscribe, call us today at 582-9999 so you can be in the know of everything that's "Coming in Tomorrow's Brandon Valley Journal"!

Will Prines Remembers The Pump Room

Minnehaha County Historical Society is taking its monthly History Talks on Facebook Live at 7 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 15, when South Dakota Rock & Roll Hall of Famer, Will Prines, shares his memories and music of his band Choozy Music and the infamous Sioux Falls night spot – the Pump Room. Log onto the Minnehaha County Historical Society Facebook page to watch.

MCAP to perform The Taming

Mighty Corson Art Players will present The Taming at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Oct. 16 and 17 and at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 18 at the Corson Playhouse, 25993 482nd Ave., Brandon.

The Taming involves tweeting, pandashrews, and undying giddiness for James Madison and all is found at the Miss America pageant. In this hilarious, raucous, all-female "power-play" inspired by Shakespeare's Shrew, contestant Katherine has political aspirations to match her beauty pageant ambitions. All she needs to revolutionize the American government is the help of one ultra-conservative senator's aide on the cusp of a career breakthrough, and one bleeding-heart liberal blogger who will do anything for her cause. Well, that and a semi-historically-accurate ether trip.
